

MORHARDT on his first trip across the Herndon goal on one of the great runs of the game. It came in the third quarter.

JACK CARTER bulling his way across for the first touchdown of the game, in the opening quarter.

JACK CARTER during his way across

DAVID MOHRHARDT was the first great star in the Wakefield history. Here he drives across for a fourth quarter touchdown, his second of the day.